Sharing what we have with others
is a very ancient tradition of our people.
On Purim we do this through Shalach Mones -- or Mishloach Manot.

Either way we pronounce the words, they mean the same thing:
"The Sending of Gifts" to friends and neighbors.

What kind of gifts do we mean?
Maybe something you have made or baked -- like Hamantashen!
Or maybe it is something we give to those in need.
Whatever you give, the important thing about it is that you are giving something of yourself.

It is said:
"When you feel most like crying,
then rejoice."
When Purim comes, we rejoice.
We drink our wine, and sing our songs.
We make our happy noise
because we are alive,
because in the long tale of our people not one Haman has risen to destroy us,
but one after another.
And yet, because we live,
our cup of joy overflows:

Am Yisrael Chai,
Our People Israel lives!
And we give praise:

The Shema and Its Blessings

Please rise.

בְּרַכּוּ אֶת יְיָ הַמְּבָרָךְ.
בְּרוּךְ יְיָ הַמְּבָרָךְ לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד.

Barekhu et Adonai ham'vo-rakh.

Praise Adonai to whom our praise is due!

Praise Adonai to whom our praise is due, now and forever!

You shall love Adonai your God with all your mind, with all your strength, with all your being.

Set these words, which I command you this day, upon your heart.

Teach them faithfully to your children;

speak of them in your home and on your way,

when you lie down and when you rise up.

Bind them as a sign upon your hand,

let them be a symbol before your eyes;

inscribe them on the doorposts of your house, and on your gates.

Be mindful of all My Mitzvot, and do them;

so shall you consecrate yourselves to your God.

I am your Eternal God, who led you out of Egypt to be your God.

I am your Eternal God.

God, how many rise up to harm me! They say to me: God will not help you.
They set traps for me, spreading a net along the road.

*They have laid traps for me; they surround me, but You are my shield; You help me stand up straight.
I hold my head high, as it is said:
“Do not be afraid, O Israel, for I will save you,
you and your children,
and none will make you afraid.”*

We have escaped, like birds from a trap;
the trap broke and we escaped;
for the God of heaven and earth has been our help.

We remember the days of Haman,
when Esther and Mordecai helped our people live;
and we remember the days of Pharoah,
when Miriam and Moses led us out of Egypt.
Then they sang this song of praise:

מִי כְמוֹכָה בָּאֵלִים יְיָ, מִי כְמוֹכָה נֹאדָר בִּקְדֻשָּׁה,
נֹרָא תְהִלָּתְךָ, עֲשֵׂה פֶלֶא.
מַלְכוּתְךָ רָאוּ בְנֵיךָ, בּוֹקֵעַ יָם לִפְנֵי מֹשֶׁה,
זֶה אֱלֹהֵינוּ וְאֵמְרוּ: יְיָ יִמְלֹךְ לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד.
וְנֵאמַר: כִּי פָדָה יְיָ אֶת יַעֲקֹב, וַיִּגְאֻלוּ מִיַּד חֲזָק מִמֶּנּוּ.
בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ, גָּאֹל יִשְׂרָאֵל.

Mi chamocha ba'eilim Adonai, mi kamocha ne'edar bakodesh, nora t'hilot oseh feleh.
Malchut'cha ra'u vanecha, bokeya yam lifnei Moshe,
zeh eil, anu v'am'ru.
Adonai Yimloch l'olam va'ed.
V'ne'emar ki fada Adonai et Ya'akov, u'ga'alo miyad chazak mimenu.
Barukh atta Adonai, ga'al Yisraeil.

Who is like You, Eternal One, among the gods that are worshipped? Who is like You, majestic in holiness, awesome in splendor, doing wonders? The redeemed sang a new song unto You; together they sang at the shore of the sea, with gratitude and proclaiming Your sovereignty, saying: “The Eternal will reign for ever and ever.”

Please Rise

You are... eighteen benedictions (an alternative Amidah)

אֲדֹנָי, שְׂפָתַי תִּפְתָּח, וּפִי יגִיד תְּהִלָּתְךָ

Adonai, Sifatei Tiftach, u'fi Yagid t'hilatecha

Eternal God, open up my lips, that my mouth may declare Your glory.

You are strong
when you take your grief
and teach it to smile.

*You are brave
when you overcome your fear and teach others to do the same.*

You are happy
when you see a flower
and give it your blessing.

*You are loving when your own pain
does not blind you to the pain of others.*

You are wise
when you know
the limits of your wisdom.

*You are true
when you admit
there are times you fool yourself.*

You are alive
when tomorrow's hope means more to you than yesterday's mistake.

You are growing when you know what you are but not what you will come to be.

You are free
when you are in control of yourself and do not wish to control others.

You are honorable when you find your honor is to honor others.

You are generous when you can take as sweetly as you give.

*You are humble
when you do not know how humble you are.*

You are thoughtful when you see me just as I am and treat me better than I am.

*You are merciful
when you forgive in others
the faults you condemn in yourself.*

*You are beautiful
when you don't need a mirror to tell you.*

*You are rich
when you never need more than you have.*

*You are what you are
and that is enough
for anyone to be loved.*

*You are what you are
and that is enough
for anyone to be loved.*

Please be seated

A Beatles Purim

Note from Rabbi Michael Feshbach

Following on the success of our Dylan Purim last year, we now bring in the wit and wisdom of John, Paul, George and Ringo! Once again, I discovered that this has been done in other settings. While I wrote some of the lyrics below, many others are adapted from Congregation Or Ami, in Lafayette Hill, PA, when Ken Carr was the Rabbi there, and Jordan Franzel the Cantor. I am not sure who wrote all of them. Many have been tweaked by me. Some other lyrics were available on public domain searches.

A special thank you, as well, to Student Cantor Ella Gladstone Martin, Cantorial Soloist Luba Dolgopolsky, Talia Feshbach, our member and guitarist Steve Richman, and all other musicians helping to bring this service to life! Thank you all!

Blessings before the Reading of the Megillah

Beatles Purim: Is There Anybody Going to Listen to "Girl," from Or Ami Purim Mania (OAPM), tweaked by Rabbi Michael Feshbach

Is there anybody going to listen to our story
All about an ancient holiday
The beginning is romantic but the end is gory
Still we must retell it anyway
Ah Purim! Purim!

When I think of all the places
We have had to leave, er,
You could turn to me and start to cry
But there's a promise of a place for us and I believe it
After all this time I don't know why
Ah, Purim.
Purim! Purim!

Shushan is the town where it goes down
In Persia many years ago
The story is a real thrill
You're gonna hear the whole megillah
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Purim! Purim!

רַב כִּיד הַמֶּלֶךְ:

Rabbi: Once upon a time, in the days of Ahasuerus -- that king of Persia who ruled over one hundred twenty seven provinces from India all the way to Ethiopia... (Esther 1:1)

Congregation: when King Ahasuerus occupied the royal throne in the walled city of Shushan, in the third year of his reign, he made a feast for all of his officials and servants, and he showed off the riches of his kingdom for a hundred eighty days. (1:2-4)

Reader: At the end of this time, the king gave a special banquet for seven days in the court of the king's palace garden, for all the people who lived in Shushan, high and low alike... Royal wine was served in great abundance.. and the rule for the drinking was "no restrictions!" (1:5-8)

Congregation: On the seventh day, when the king was merry with wine, he ordered... seven servants... to bring Queen Vashti before the king wearing [only?] her crown, to show off her beauty to everyone, for she was indeed a very beautiful woman. But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command...

Reader: The king became very angry, and he consulted his servants, and he issued a royal decree that Vashti should be exiled and her royal estate be given to another who was more [obedient] than she. (1:10-13, 19)

Beatles Purim: "Vashti Says Goodbye To Diamonds"

to "Lucy in the Sky With Diamonds" written by Rabbi Michael Feshbach

Picture yourself in a show on a cruiseline
With slap-happy patrons and all leering eyes.
Somebody calls you you answer quite slowly
The queen who would wear a disguise.

Free-flowing cocktails of all different ilks
Pouring down into your head
Look for the queen with the fire in her eyes
And she's gone

Vashti says goodbye to diamonds.
Vashti says goodbye to diamonds.
Vashti says goodbye to diamonds.

Follow her out to a life led in exile
Where newly woke women refuse to recline.
Smiling inside as they challenge the old men
Who think they're incredibly fine.

Island safaris appear on the shore
Waiting to take you away
Straighten your back with your head held up high
And you're gone.

Vashti says goodbye to diamonds.
Vashti says goodbye to diamonds.
Vashti says goodbye to diamonds.

Congregation: And letters were sent to all the provinces of the king... that every man should be the boss in his own home! (1:22)

Reader: Some time afterward, when the king was less angry [and had recovered from his hangover] he realized that he was in serious need of a new queen! So the king's servants suggested that a Miss Persia contest be held, and that beautiful young women from all over the land be brought to Shushan, and given make-up, and that the woman who most pleased the king would become Queen instead of Vashti. (2:1-4, paraphrased).

Reader: In Shushan, the capital, there was a certain Jew whose name was Mordecai, who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives by Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. He was the foster father of Hadassah -- that is, Esther -- his uncle's daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. (2:5-7)

Congregation: The young woman was shapely and beautiful, and when her parents died, Mordecai adopted her as his own daughter. (2:7)

Reader: When the king's contest was announced, many young women gathered together in Shushan. Esther, too, was taken to the palace. When Esther's turn came to go to the king, she found favor in the eyes of all who saw her. (2:8, 15)

Beatles Purim: Got To Make That Esther My Wife!

to "Got To Get You Into My Life."

OAPM, tweaks by Rabbi Michael Feshbach

I am alone, I had a queen
She wouldn't dance, I made her leave here
She hit the road and so I sit a lonely king without a queen here

Ooh, then I suddenly see her
Ooh, did I tell you I need her
I want to make that Esther my wife

She is the one, I do not lie
You know I want so much to hold her
Before she's gone I must decide that she's the one
And now I've told her

Ooh, you were meant to be near me
Ooh, and I want you to hear me
Say we'll be together every day
Got to make that Esther my wife

ESTHER: What should I do, what should I say
That I'm a Jew? Can I be me here?
Though it is true, I will not tell
I don't feel safe, I don't feel free here
Ooh, then I suddenly see him
Ooh, did I tell you I need him
I want to be Ahashverosh's wife
KING: Got to make that Esther my wife

I was alone, I had no queen
I didn't know what I would find here

ESTHER: Another road I'm heading down
I have a future with the King here

BOTH: Ooh, you were meant to be near me
Ooh, and I want you to hear me
Say we'll be together every day

KING: Got to make that Esther my wife
Got to make that Esther my wife

Congregation: The king loved Esther above all the other women. So he set the royal crown upon her head, making her queen instead of Vashti! And the king threw another great party for all of his officials, and he even proclaimed that no one would owe any taxes during that period of time. (2:17-18)

Reader: But Esther still did not reveal her religion or her people; as Mordecai had instructed her, she did not tell the king that she was Jewish. (2:20)

Reader: At about that time, Mordecai happened to be sitting in the palace gate, when he overheard two of the king's... male-servants-with-artificially-high-voices become angry, and plot to do away with King Ahasueres. Mordecai told the matter to Queen Esther, who reported it to the king in Mordecai's name. (2:21-22)

Congregation: The matter was investigated, and found to be true, and the two servants... were dealt with harshly. (2:23)

Beatles Purim: Execution

To: "Revolution."

OAPM Purim, tweaked lightly by Rabbi Michael Feshbach

ALL: Oh we're planning for a revolution, well, you know,
We all want to kill the king
We're gonna make a substitution, well, you know,
Will you join us in this thing?

MORDECAI: When you talk about destruction
Don't you know that you can count me out.
You know it's going to be all right, all right, all right

ALL: We know we got a good solution, well, you know
We have organized a coup.

MORDECAI: No, you're serving up an execution, well, you know,
Voting instead is right to do.
And if you are acting for people with minds that hate,
All I can tell you is you have to wait.
Someday it's going to be all right, all right, all right.

Esther 3:1-2

א אַחֲרַי | הַדְּבָרִים הָאֵלֶּה גָּדַל הַמֶּלֶךְ אֶחְשִׁירֹשׁ אֶת־הָמָן בֶּן־הַמִּדְיָא הָאֲגָגִי
וַיִּנְשְׂאֵהוּ וַיֵּשֶׂם אֶת־כִּסֵּאוֹ מֵעַל כָּל־הַשָּׂרִים אֲשֶׁר אִתּוֹ: ב וְכָל־עַבְדֵי הַמֶּלֶךְ
אֲשֶׁר־בְּשַׁעַר הַמֶּלֶךְ כָּרְעִים וּמִשְׁתַּחֲוִים לְהָמָן כִּי־כֵן צִוָּה־לוֹ הַמֶּלֶךְ וּמֶרְדֳּכַי לֹא
יִכְרַע וְלֹא יִשְׁתַּחֲוֶה:

Reader: After these events, the king promoted HAMAN the Agagite, placing him above all other officials. [3:1]

Reader: All of the king's servants in the palace knelt and bowed low to him, as the king had commanded. (3: 2)

Congregation: Only Mordecai would neither kneel nor bow. (3:2)

Beatles Purim: “Hey, Jew.”

To: “Hey, Jude.”

OAPM Purim with minor tweaks

Hey Jew, you must bow down
Here's a warning, you know you'd better
Remember that Haman's walking by soon
Get on your knees, you know you'd better.

Hey Jew, you're not afraid
To your one God you will be true
The moment that Haman sees you still stand
He will command that we should just kill you.

And even if Haman can be a pain, hey Jew, explain
Why do you wear that shawl on your shoulders?
For well you know that it's a fool who plays it cool.
Resisting? What makes you bolder?

Hey Jew, you must bow down
Here's a warning, you know you'd better
Remember that Haman's walking by soon
Get on your knees, you know you'd better, better, better, better,

Na na na, na na na na, na na na na, Hey Jew.....

Reader: When HAMAN saw that Mordecai would neither kneel nor bow to him, he was filled with anger.

Congregation: But he decided not to hurt Mordecai alone; having been told that Mordecai was Jewish, HAMAN decided to do something that would hurt all the Jews throughout the whole kingdom. (3:5-6)

Reader: So HAMAN said to King Ahasueres: "There is a certain people, spread out among the other peoples in all the provinces of your land, whose laws are different from those of any other people and who do not obey the king's laws; and it is not in Your Majesty's interest to tolerate them. If it please Your Majesty, let an order be sent forth that they be destroyed." (3:8-9)

Reader: And the king said to HAMAN: "Let it be done!" (3:11)

Beatles Purim: Wicked Man

To: Nowhere Man.

OAPM Purim, with tweaks by Rabbi Michael Feshbach

He's a real wicked man
Spitting spite in Shushan land
Making all his evil plans to hurt the Jews.

HAMAN: I'm a really dirty rat
Wearing this three-cornered hat
Who could like a guy like that Well, nobody!

Wicked man, made a vow (aaah-ah-la-la-la)
Because Mordechai would not bow (aaah-ah-la-la-la)
Wicked man (aaah-ah-la-la-la)
He swore all the Jews would suffer. (aaah-aah-lala-lala-la)

HAMAN: Got the King to soon agree
Issue an exec decree
Making sure no one will me defy.
Gallows built to do the deed
My evil plan set to succeed
That's my little strategy, to Jews: bye-bye!

Wicked man, he's bad (aaah-ah-la-la-la)
And his plans make us sad (aaah-ah-la-la-la)
We all pray (aaah-ah-la-la-la)
a judge will stay his order (aaah-aah-lala-lala-la)

He's a real wicked man
in his big house in Shushan land
Making all his evil plans to get revenge.
Making all his evil plans to get revenge.
Making all his evil plans to get revenge.

Congregation: When Mordecai learned all that had happened, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes and walked into the city weeping and wailing and crying very loudly. (4:1)

Reader: In every province there was great mourning among the Jews, and loud cries, and fasting and weeping and wailing. (4:3)

Congregation: Esther's maids and servants came and told her this news, and the queen became very upset. Esther then called Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains who had been appointed to serve her, and ordered him to find Mordecai, and to find out what was going on. (4:4-5)

Reader: Mordecai then told him all that had happened to him, and he gave him a copy of HAMAN's decree which had been proclaimed in Shushan ordering the destruction of the Jews, so that he might show it to Esther, and report to her, and bid her to go to the king and plead with him for her people. (4:7-8)

Beatles Purim: You Gotta Tell The King

To: I Wanna Hold Your Hand

OAPM

Oh yeah, I'll tell you something
The Jews are suffering.
You've got to do something
You gotta tell the King
You gotta tell the King-i-i-ing
You gotta tell the King!

Oh Haman he is plotting
Our lives he's threatening
You must save your people
You gotta tell the King
You gotta tell the King-i-i-ing
You gotta tell the King

And though you've kept the fact you're Jewish all inside
Right now it's something too important, you can't hide
You can't hide, you can't hide

So please say to me
You're going to do this thing
Our future's in your hand
Now go and tell the King
You gotta tell the King-i-i-ing
You gotta tell the King

Beatles Purim: She's Jewish

To: She Loves You

OAPM

You think you know the Queen
Well, I saw her yesterday
There's something unforeseen
And she told me this, oy vey!
She says she's Jewish
So how can that be bad?
Yes she's Jewish
That Haman will be mad.

She said no one must know
To put it from my mind
The King adores her so
She's gentle and kind
She says she's Jewish
So how can that be bad?
Yes she's Jewish
That Haman will be mad. Oy!

She's Jewish, oy, oy oy
She's Jewish, oy oy oy
With a queen like that
You know we should be glad
With a queen like that
You know we should be glad
With a queen like that
You know we sho-uld
Be glad
Oy, oy, oy
Oy, oy, oy, oy

Reader: Hatach came and told Esther what Mordecai had said. Esther then spoke to Hatach, and instructed him to carry this message back to Mordecai: "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that any man or woman who goes into the inner court of the king without an invitation will be put to death(!)... unless the king extends his golden scepter... only then may that person live. And as for me, I have not been called to come in unto the king for the last thirty days. (4:9-11)

Reader: And Mordecai answered Esther: Do not think that because you are in the king's palace, and because you have hidden your identity, that you alone of all the Jews will escape. On the contrary; if you remain silent about who you are in this crises, relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from another source, but you and your father's house will perish. Besides, who knows -- perhaps it was for just such a time as this that you attained your royal status." (4:13-14)

Congregation: And Esther sent this message back to Mordecai: "I will go in to the king, though it is against the law, and if I perish, I perish." (4:15-16)

Beatles Purim: Don't Let It Be

To: Let It Be

Written by Rabbi Michael Feshbach

When I find myself in times of trouble, Mordecai just comes to me, Pushing words of wisdom: "Don't let it be!"
And in my hour of darkness, family right in front of me.
Nudgy with words of wisdom: "Don't let it be."

Don't let it be! Don't let it be!
Don't let it be! Don't let it be!

And when all persecuted people
Living in the world agree,
Kindness is the answer; don't let it be.
For though they are still haters around us
There is still a chance that they will see
If we stand up and answer: leave us be.

Leave us be, leave us be. Yeah
It's part of our answer, just leave us be.

But until we live in harmony,
There is still a light that shines through me,
Shine until tomorrow, don't let it be.
I wake up to the sound of kvetching

Mordecai just comes to me, pushing words of wisdom, don't let it be.

Don't let it be, don't let it be.
To the meanness still surrounding us, don't let it be.
Don't let it be, don't let it be,
Calling us to action, don't let it be.

Reader: After three days of fasting and praying, Esther put on her best royal robes, and stood in the inner courtyard of the king's palace, while the king was sitting on his throne. (5:1)

Congregation: When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the courtyard, she won his favor, and the king extended to Esther the golden scepter which he had in his hand, and Esther approached and touched the tip of the scepter. (5:2)

Reader: Then the king said to her: "What is troubling you, Queen Esther, and what is your petition? Be it half the kingdom, it will be granted to you!" (5:3)

Reader: And Esther said: "If it please the king, let the king and HAMAN come today to a feast which I have prepared for them." (5:4)

Beatles Purim: Chicken Tonight

To: Ticket to Ride From: OAPM

KING: I think I'm gonna be fed
I think it's today, yeah
The Queen I recently wed
Is serving buffet

She's making chicken tonight
She's making chicken tonight
She's making chicken tonight
And I'll be there!

Before I made Esther Queen
Was feelin' real down, yeah
But then I gave her a ring
And the royal crown.

She's making chicken tonight
She's making chicken tonight
She's making chicken tonight
And I'll be there.

I don't know what she'll serve on the side,
Maybe wild rice
That ought to do right by me
Before she gets through serving the pie
I'll have a small slice
That ought to do right by me!

HAMAN: I think I'm gonna be fed
I think it's today yeah
I am moving ahead
Life's going my way

BOTH: She's making chicken tonight
She's making chicken tonight
She's making chicken tonight
And I'll be there!
I'm gonna be there,
I'm gonna be there,
I'm gonna be there!

Reader: The king replied: "Bring HAMAN quickly to fulfill Esther's wish!" (5:5)

Congregation: And the king, together with his advisor, came to the banquet which Esther had prepared. (5:5)

Reader: Then the king said to Esther: "Now, what is your request? It will be granted to you!" And Esther said: "If I have found favor in the king's eyes, let the king and HAMAN come to the feast which I have prepared for them tomorrow." (5:6-7)

Congregation: So the king and [that bad guy] came to the feast with Queen Esther. On the second day, the king again asked Esther: "What is your wish, Queen Esther? It shall be granted to you. And what is your request? Even to half the kingdom, it shall be fulfilled." (7:1-2)

Reader: And Esther said: "May my life be given to me as my petition, and the life of my people as my request. For we have been sold, me and my people, for destruction, for murder and annihilation!" (7:3-5)

Beatles Purim: Help!

To: Help! Written by Rabbi Michael Feshbach

Help! we need somebody
Help! not just anybody
Help! you know we need someone! Help!

When I was younger, so much younger than today
I never needed anybody's help in any way
But now those days are gone the danger is absurd.
Now I find allies are fine, I just need to be heard.

Help me if you can, we're on the clock
My head will soon be put right on the block
Our end will come if you don't stop it,
Won't you please, please help me?

And now our lives have changed in oh so many ways
Interdependence is the rule in this new phase
It's enough to make one insecure
To need each more than we did before.

Won't you please, please help me?
Help me. help me, oooh!!!

Beatles Purim: All The Jewish People

To: Eleanor Rigby,
OAPM

ESTHER: King Ahashverosh, needed a queen so he searched for the best in the land
I gave him my hand
Trouble was stirring, someone was plotting to kill him,
it wasn't a game.
Who was to blame?

All the Jewish people
Where do they all come from?
All the Jewish people
Where do they all belong?

Haman advised him,
angry that Mordechai stood up and wouldn't bow down
As he walked by Haman built gallows, sent out an edict all over the kingdom that said "All Jews must die"

All the Jewish people
Where do they all come from?
All the Jewish people
Where do they all belong?

Here is the truth now,
if all the Jews will be killed by your wicked decree
You must kill me
I've kept a secret,
but now revealing the truth is the right thing to do
I am a Jew!

All the Jewish people
Where do they all come from?
All the Jewish people
Where do they all belong?

ALL: Ah, look at all the Jewish people
Ah, look at all the Jewish people.....

Reader: And the king asked: (7:5)

Congregation: "Who is he, and where is he, who dared to do such a thing?" (7:5)

Reader: "A vicious enemy!" (7:6)

Reader: "This wicked HAMAN!" (7:6)

Reader: The king arose and said: "Hang him on the gallows that he prepared for Mordecai!" (7:7)

Reader: So they hanged HAMAN on the gallows he had built. (7:10)

Reader: The king's scribes were summoned, and Mordecai ordered that letters be sent to all the Jews, telling them how they had been saved from the hands of the king's evil advisor. (8:9, 11)

Congregation: Then Mordecai left the king's presence dressed in a royal robe of blue and white, with a great golden crown and a cloak of white linen and purple, and the city of Shushan had a long, loud party! (8:15)

Rabbi: Hayita la'y'hudim orah v'simcha, ve'sasson, v'yikar (8:16).

Congregation: For the Jews there was light and joy, gladness and honor. (8:16).

Rabbi: And Mordecai sent letters to the Jews, instructing them to observe the fourteenth and fifteenth days of Adar each year, the same days on which the Jews had found relief from their enemies, making them days of feasting and joy, for the exchange of gifts and the giving of tzedakah to the poor, so that these days of Purim should be remembered and kept for all generations. (9:20-22)

Beatles Purim: Esther's Day

To: Yesterday by Yakira and the Band, YedidYah Music

Esther's Day is when Jewish folks will have their say and cruel Haman will just go away.
O we believe in Esther's Day.

Mordecai says that we don't really have to die.
Now that's just a lot of chazerai.
So have the King tell Haman "Bye."

Why we're hated so we don't know and who can say?
Esther help us now when our skies are blue and grey.

Esther's Day is when Haman will be sent away
Or forever we will say "oy vey!"
O we believe in Esther's Day.
Yes, we believe in Esther's Day!

Blessings for after the Reading of the Megillah
